

Bylaws of the Friends of the Missouri National Recreational River

Revised Feb 27, 2018

The Friends of The Missouri National Recreational River (FOMNRR) shall function under the authority of US IRS Code 501(c) (3). The FOMNRR is incorporated in South Dakota and based in Yankton. The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Purpose:

The FOMNRR will work in conjunction with the National Park Service and other stakeholders to strengthen and enhance the connection between people and the Missouri National Recreational River (MNRR) to encourage appropriate use and ensure a sustainable future for the river.

We do this by:

- Increasing awareness of the MNRR and its many resources
- Raising funds to support river education and stewardship
- Providing the passion, expertise, advocacy and inspiration for protecting, preserving and enhancing the MNRR through an effective partnership with the NPS and other agencies, groups and organizations in a professional, ethical and open manner
- Working to improve and further our efforts in the ongoing support of the MNRR

ARTICLE I -- MISSION

The mission of the FOMNRR is to build awareness, enhance and advocate for the scenic, recreational, fish and wildlife, ecological, geological, cultural/historical values and economic opportunities of the MNRR, a recreational component of the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System.

ARTICLE II -- GOALS

- Develop and maintain partnerships to enhance the MNRR and the adjacent middle Missouri River corridor for the betterment of people within the region, as well as, the United States.
- Enhance the quality of the visitor experience making the MNRR a national tourist destination.
- Provide leadership in developing a shared vision and a unified voice for MNRR stakeholders.
- Build an active constituency and raise funds to support The Missouri National Recreational River resource stewardship.
- Increase public awareness of the MNRR.
- Facilitate efforts to enhance the MNRR and specifically the “Missouri National Recreational River Outstandingly Remarkable Values.”
Promote and coordinate volunteer activities of the MNRR.

ARTICLE III -- DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of these Bylaws:

- "Alternate FOMNRR Director" shall mean the person chosen by the FOMNRR who shall assume the Board of Director's chair when the Director is unable to be present, but not as a permanent replacement for the Director.
- "Annual Meeting" is the annual gathering sponsored by FOMNRR and partners or stakeholders in the MNRR area to learn about activities of the FOMNRR.
- "Ex Officio" shall be defined as a person who is a member of the board as a consequence of their job or position. Ex Officio members will have a non-voting status.
- "Grass roots" shall be defined as stakeholders who live in the MNRR area or who experience recreation on the MNRR.
- "Membership" shall include any participating group, organization, and government agency, or individual.
- "FOMNRR" shall mean Friends of The Missouri National Recreational River.
- "FOMNRR Director" shall mean a person on the FOMNRR Board of Directors.
- "Executive Director" shall mean a person appointed or hired by the FOMNRR to serve in that capacity.
- "The Missouri National Recreational River" is defined and includes the MNRR which segments are from Gavins Point Dam, South Dakota, 59 miles downstream to Ponca State Park, Nebraska, and 39 miles downstream of Fort Randall Dam to Running Water, South Dakota; the Missouri River contiguous to these two segments; the 25 miles of the Niobrara River from the western boundary of Knox County, NE, to its confluence with the Missouri River, including that segment of the Verdigre Creek from the north municipal boundary of Verdigre, NE, to its confluence with the Niobrara River; and the portions of the tributaries of the Missouri River found within the MNRR boundaries.
- "Technical Advisors" are those individuals, agencies, institutions and organizations designated and invited to assist the FOMNRR in the performance of any given project/program.
- "Unified voice" is based on the development of a corridor-wide vision that represents the goals and needs of the members of the FOMNRR.

ARTICLE IV – OFFICES

Registered Office:

The registered office of the FOMNRR shall be established and maintained as required by the laws of the State of South Dakota governing Nonprofit Corporations. The FOMNRR may, from time to time, change the location of their office in accordance with applicable laws. The FOMNRR mailing address is: P.O. Box 7029, Yankton SD 57078-7029. The FOMNRR website is: www.fomnrr.org, and the email address is: info@fomnrr.org.

ARTICLE V – COMPOSITION/ELECTIONS/APPOINTMENTS/VACANCIES

The organization will be inclusive.

The structure will consist of three bodies:

- 1) Membership
- 2) FOMNRR Board of Directors
- 3) FOMNRR Executive Committee

Other Committees or subcommittees shall be established according to the bylaws or operating procedures.

Section 1. FOMNRR Membership:

The FOMNRR will consist of unlimited at-large members, who will pay an annual membership fee. At-large members may either pay a business membership fee, a family membership fee, or both, dependent upon their situation. The FOMNRR Membership will meet formally once a year at the Annual Meeting, although members may attend Board of Directors, Executive Committee or any other committee meetings.

Section 2. FOMNRR Board of Directors:

The Board of Directors (BOD) shall consist of elected members consisting of the following representation: up to four (4) representatives of cities, counties, or states adjoining the MNRR (2 in South Dakota, 2 in Nebraska); at least one (1) tribal representative; four (4) landowner interests of the MNRR (two members each from the 39 and 59 mile districts and split evenly between SD and NE); up to two (2) representatives from tourism/economic development; and up to two (2) representative from recreation; one (1) representative from education/science; and one (1) representative from resource stewardship. Additionally, one (1) or more At-Large director positions may be filled by the membership.

The members of the BOD shall be representative of the entire MNRR region.

The BOD may have ex-officio representatives as deemed appropriate by the BOD.

The BOD has the authority to form subcommittees for specific issues or tasks

Section 3. Executive Committee:

The Executive Committee will consist of five (5) BOD members that will be nominated for a full term or to replace an officer that is stepping down. The election of officers will be held at the last meeting of the BOD each year. The Executive Committee will meet remotely or in person as needed. Term of office shall be two years. The committee will consist of a chair, vice-chair, secretary, treasurer and one at-large committee member. Alternatively, the chair and vice-chair positions can be combined to form two co-chairs in any given year.

Section 4. Vacancies/Attendance:

If the office of any FOMNRR Director becomes vacant for any reason, the executive board will name a replacement. This person shall hold office for the remainder of the term in which such vacancy occurred. A vacant position on the FOMNRR shall neither preclude nor relieve the FOMNRR from fulfilling its responsibilities.

If a board member is not in attendance or represented by an alternate at two consecutive meetings, without advance notice to the chair or vice chair, the board may recommend termination of that member and alternate after giving notice to the affected parties and giving them an opportunity to respond.

A member or alternate will notify the Chair if they are no longer able, or willing, to serve as director. The Chair will notify the board of the vacancy.

Section 5. Resignations:

Any FOMNRR Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect upon the date of the receipt of such notice, or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 6. Alternate FOMNRR Directors:

Each Director may select their own Alternate to represent them if they are absent. The purpose of the Alternate is keep the Director informed, not to permanently fill in for the Director. If the Director is unable to make the commitment required, another Director should be chosen.

ARTICLE VI -- POWERS AND DUTIES

Section 1. Membership:

Section 6. Land Acquisition/Transfer:

The FOMNRR in cooperation with the National Park Service MNRR may at any given time consider accepting land donations, or pursuing funding support for land acquisition and/or conservation easements with willing landowners of tracts for purposes pertinent to the mission of each organization, as well as to improve river access, and enhance visitor enjoyment along the Missouri River corridor encompassed within the MNRR designation. Secured land acquisitions, conservation easements or land donations may at any time at the discretion of the FOMNRR BOD be transferred to the National Park Service MNRR for long-term management and administration in accordance with the Park's enabling legislation and foundation documents (e.g. Organic Act, Wild and Scenic Rivers Act, General Management Plan, etc.)

ARTICLE VII -- BOARD MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular Meetings:

Regular meetings of the FOMNRR BOD shall be held bimonthly, or more frequently if necessary. All meetings shall be with notice to the BOD by email at least 14 days in advance of the meeting.

Section 2. Special Meetings:

Special meetings for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation, may be called by the Chair of the FOMNRR or on the written request of two (2) FOMNRR Directors.

Notice of Special Meeting:

Notices shall include the time, place, and purpose or purposes of the special meeting, and shall be sent to each Director, with ten (10) days' notice by telephone or e-mail.

Business to be transacted:

No business other than that stated in the notice shall be transacted at said meeting.

Section 3. Emergency Meetings:

Emergency meetings may be scheduled when an issue arises which requires immediate attention as determined by the Chair of the FOMNRR or on the written request of two (2) FOMNRR Directors.

Notification of emergency meetings shall be by telephone or e-mail and require action within 24 hours. Actions may be conducted by telephone conference or by formally convening at a given location.

Section 4. Place of Meeting:

The FOMNRR shall hold meetings in the Missouri National Recreational River area.

Section 5. Organization of Meeting:

At all meetings of the FOMNRR BOD and annual meeting, the Chair shall chair the meeting. In the absence of the Chair, the Vice-Chair shall assume the Chair. In the absence of the Secretary, any person appointed by the Chair shall act as Secretary.

Section 6. Attendance of FOMNRR Directors at FOMNRR Meetings:

BOD Members or their alternates are encouraged to actively participate in the meetings of the FOMNRR. Any board member who has three (3) or more unexcused absences from regularly scheduled meetings in one (1) year, whether consecutive or not, his/her position on the advisory council may be terminated.

Section 7. Quorum:

At all meetings of the FOMNRR BOD, seven (7) members of the Board shall constitute a quorum, and the affirmative or negative vote of greater than 50% of the members present shall be necessary to bind the FOMNRR except for adjournment.

Without a Quorum: If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the FOMNRR Board, any FOMNRR Director in attendance may challenge the quorum and adjourn the meeting until a quorum shall be present.

Tabling: Those issues which by statute or the Articles of Incorporation require quorum for approval or rejection will, without a quorum present, be tabled until the next FOMNRR Board meeting (regular or special), at which a quorum is present.

Section 8. Action without Meeting:

Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the FOMNRR BOD or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if a written consent thereto is signed by all Directors of the FOMNRR Board (or verbal, if documented), or of such committee, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the FOMNRR Board or committee. Such action shall be effective on the date on which the last signature is placed on such writing or writings, or (if there is total concurrence) such earlier effective date as is set forth therein.

Section 9. Remote Participation:

The Directors may participate in a meeting of the FOMNRR BOD or any committee thereof by means of conference telephone or other forms of remote communications. Participation in such a manner shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, and all discussions requiring a vote shall be recorded.

Section 10. Voting Rights:

All FOMNRR BOD members shall vote in person. If a BOD member is unable to attend a duly called meeting, the member's designated Alternate shall assume the responsibility. When attendance of the Director or the designated Alternate at a FOMNRR meeting is not possible, the FOMNRR Director shall have the right to give advance written consent or opposition to a proposal to be acted on at a meeting of the FOMNRR. If a FOMNRR Director or Alternate is not present at the meeting of the FOMNRR, the Director's consent or opposition to a proposal does not constitute presence for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum, but consent or opposition shall be counted as a vote in favor of or against the proposal and shall be entered in the minutes or other record of action at the meeting if the proposal acted on at the meeting is substantially the same or has substantially the same effect as the proposal to which the FOMNRR Director has consented or objected.

Section 12. Voting:

Each FOMNRR Director, or in the Director's absence, the Alternate, shall have one vote at any FOMNRR meeting. However, the FOMNRR Director, or in his absence the Alternate, in attendance on the first day of any FOMNRR meeting may record his/her vote(s) with the Secretary if they will be absent the following day(s). If the Director and the Alternate are unable to attend, the FOMNRR Director may record his/her position on any issue on the agenda by identifying the issue to be voted on, recording his/her vote on paper, dating and duly signing the paper and submitting it to the Secretary of the FOMNRR.

Section 13. Compensation of the FOMNRR:

There shall be no compensation of FOMNRR BOD members. As fiscal capabilities permit, expenses incurred in the course of business, such as telephone charges or mileage, may be paid only by majority approval of the board. FOMNRR board members may be reimbursed for travel expenses on behalf of the BOD for activities other than BOD meetings. Expenses shall be approved by the executive committee prior to payment.

ARTICLE VIII -- ANNUAL MEETING

Section 1. Place and Time of Annual Meeting:

There shall be an annual meeting at such time and location as determined by the FOMNRR. The date, time and location of the annual meeting shall be established to afford maximum participation by members of the FOMNRR and residents from The Missouri National Recreational River area.

Section 2. Purpose:

The annual meeting shall be held to update attendees on activities and finances of the FOMNRR.

Section 3. Notice of Annual Meeting:

Notice of the time and place of the annual meeting shall be published at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting date. Such notice shall be mailed for publication in appropriate media in The Missouri National Recreational River area.

ARTICLE IX -- GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Annual Report:

The FOMNRR shall maintain and present at each annual meeting a full and clear statement of the business and condition of the Corporation, as well as the administration of all funds.

Section 2. Checks:

When authorized and designated in official FOMNRR documents, the Chair, Treasurer and the Executive Director or FOMNRR designee(s) shall have the authority to sign checks or demands for money and notes or other negotiable instruments for the Corporation.

Section 3. Fund Responsibility:

The FOMNRR shall establish such funding documents as necessary to accurately reflect FOMNRR receipts and disbursements, and assure accounting complies with the laws of South Dakota.

Section 4. Fiscal Year:

The fiscal year of the FOMNRR shall be from 10/1 to 9/30

Section 5. Contracts:

The FOMNRR shall have the authority to enter into contracts, make application for funding and to make all other necessary arrangements for the financial security/operation of the Corporation.

Section 6. Certified Public Accountant/Chartered Accountant/Certified General Accountant Review:

The books and records of the FOMNRR shall be reviewed/audited annually at the request of the board by a certified public accounting firm.

Section 7. Distribution of Authorities:

All FOMNRR Directors shall be provided a copy of the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws and all organizational policies and procedures to assure knowledge of the responsibilities, functions and purposes of the FOMNRR.

Section 8. Conflict of Interest:

FOMNRR BOD members shall not engage in any transactions with the organization's assets in which the FOMNRR Director has direct or indirect personal financial interest and shall refrain from any conduct in which his/her personal interests would conflict with the interests of the FOMNRR.

Section 9. FOMNRR Liabilities:

No FOMNRR Director shall be personally liable so long as he/she acts in good faith and with ordinary prudence in discharging the duties of the office.

Each FOMNRR Director shall be liable only for his/her own willful misconduct or omissions in bad faith. No FOMNRR Director shall be liable for the acts or omissions of any other FOMNRR Director, or of any accountant, agent, attorney or custodian selected with reasonable care.

Section 10. Assets:

All assets are to be titled with the name "Friends of The Missouri National Recreational River." No part of the net earnings of the FOMNRR shall benefit any private individual or FOMNRR member.

Section 11. Dissolution:

Upon dissolution of the FOMNRR, the Board shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the FOMNRR, dispose of all the assets of the FOMNRR exclusively for the purposes of the FOMNRR in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the BOD shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the FOMNRR is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Termination and Disposition of Assets

Disposition of Assets upon Termination or Expiration of this Agreement or Cessation of Friends Group Operations. Upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement or cessation of the operations of the Friends Group for any reason, those funds held for the benefit of NPS, including all interest and earnings thereon and all in-kind contributions, shall be transferred to NPS or to a third-party deemed acceptable by NPS (under such terms and conditions as are deemed acceptable by NPS) for use consistent with the purposes for which the donations were made. Nothing herein shall prevent Friends Group from satisfying allowable outstanding obligations reasonably incurred in association with this Agreement prior to the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

Section 12. Corporation Activities:

The FOMNRR, as a part of its authorities, shall be authorized to conduct lobbying (when required and limited to the amount permitted in Section 501(3) (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) in the respective jurisdictions on subjects related to water and water resources. The FOMNRR members on behalf of FOMNRR shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign on the behalf of any candidate for public office. The FOMNRR shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an entity established under the United States Income Tax Code Section 501(c)(3).

Limitations on Lobbying. To the extent that the Friends Group commits in this agreement or any related agreement to raise funds from non-federal sources for a particular purpose or project to benefit NPS, the Friends Group agrees that it will not lobby for or otherwise seek the appropriation of funds from Congress to meet that commitment. The Friends Group may not use any appropriated funds (including property, utilities, or services acquired with, or supported by, appropriated funds) to lobby or attempt to influence Congress or any official of any government.

The Friends Group will not use Government-owned property in any lobbying activities.

ARTICLE X -- AMENDMENTS/ADDENDUM

Section 1. Amendments:

The FOMNRR shall have the authority following review, to change these Bylaws providing the changes will correct a discovered deficiency, or improve the process of administration and operation of the FOMNRR. All proposed changes shall be submitted to the FOMNRR Directors a minimum of thirty (30) days prior to discussion and/or decision. The FOMNRR shall present changes along with appropriate rationale at the Annual Meeting.

Section 2. Addendum:

Documents developed by the FOMNRR which support and/or reinforce responsibilities assigned within these Bylaws may be attached to these Bylaws as addendum until such time as the number of addendum dictate a rewrite of these Bylaws.

Section 3. Operating Procedures:

The Operating Procedures shall serve as the operating guidelines of the FOMNRR and its committees and shall be approved by and in effect until changed by FOMNRR BOD's action.

Section 4. Changes to the Bylaws:

Changes to the bylaws must be approved by two-thirds of the voting members present at a BOD meeting. Bylaws are to be reviewed at a minimum on an annual basis to make any needed updates and/or changes.
